February 2004

Co-operation between Statistics South Africa (Stats SA), the citizens of the country, the private sector and government institutions is essential for a successful statistical system. Without continued co-operation and goodwill, the timely release of relevant and reliable official statistics will not be possible.

Embargoed until:
22 April 2004
13:00

Stats SA publishes approximately three hundred different releases each year. It is not economically viable to produce them in more than one of South Africa's eleven official languages. Since the releases are used extensively, not only locally, but also by international economic and social-scientific communities, Stats SA releases are published in English only.

1. Introduction

1.1 Sources of data

Legal movements across South African borders as well as legal immigration into South Africa fall under the jurisdiction of the Department of Home Affairs (DHA). Information on tourism and documented immigration are obtained from all ports of entry. Information on arrivals into and departures from South Africa are captured by DHA and loaded onto the mainframe at State Information Technology Agency (SITA). Stats SA accesses this data remotely, which is then used as part of the input data for this report. Information on legal immigrants to South Africa is sent to Stats SA on computer printout from DHA. The information on the printout is coded and captured by clerical staff at Stats SA.

South African departures and arrivals are no longer required to have their barcodes scanned or complete departure forms at the ports of entry and exit, therefore, statistics on their departure and arrival is no longer available. This is due to the implementation of the Immigration Act (No. 13 of 2002) by DHA as from April 2003.

Overseas travellers: During February 2004, the number of travellers from the UK visiting South Africa was 53 288 (28,7%), making it the leading country of origin of overseas travellers. This was followed by travellers from Germany, 27 261 (14,7%); and the USA, 14 655 (7,9%). The other main countries of origin of overseas travellers were: France, 10 532 (5,7%); the Netherlands, 11 133 (6,0%); Australia, 5 489 (3,0%); Switzerland, 3 922 (2,1%) and Ireland, 3 882 (2,1%). Upon comparing the figures for January 2004 with those of January 2003, the highest increase in the number of arrivals from these leading source countries was for Italy, (20,8% increase from 3 850 in 2003 to 4 652 in 2004), (Figure: 2). The main stated purpose of visit for travellers coming from these leading source countries was holidays, followed by business.

Travellers from mainland Africa: During February 2004, the top eight countries in mainland Africa from which travellers arriving in South Africa came, were: Lesotho, 108 555 (31,8%); Swaziland, 62 705 (18,3%); Botswana, 50 740 (14,8%); Zimbabwe, 42 741 (12,5%); Mozambique, 34 536 (10,1%); Namibia, 13 448 (3,9%); Zambia, 9 269 (2,7%) and Malawi, 6 747 (2,0%). When comparing arrival figures from mainland Africa, for 2003 and 2004, there was an increase in the number of travellers arriving from Swaziland, (11,1% increase from 51 849 in 2003 to 62 705 in 2004) (Figure: 3).

2.5 Migration

2.5.1 Documented immigration

For the purpose of clarification, as per definition, 'undocumented immigrants' will not appear in the statistics collected. It is against this background that we report the migration statistics for January 2004.

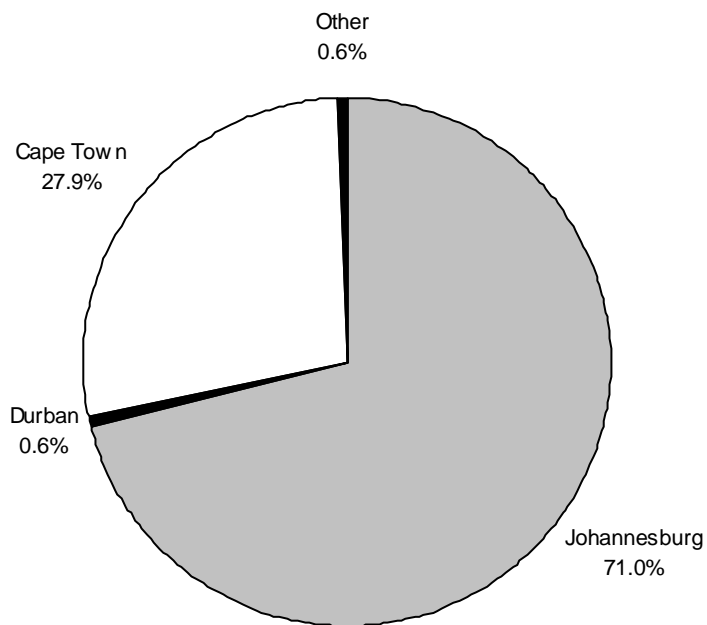

In February 2004, the leading source countries of documented immigrants were: Nigeria, 236 (16,5%); the UK, 141 (9,8%); Zimbabwe, 130 (9,1%); Pakistan, 123 (8,6%) and Germany 64 (4,5%).

2.6 Historical trends in tourism

It should be borne in mind that there is often quite a substantial month to month variation in tourism figures, and one needs to look at a longer period of several months to be able to detect any trends and patterns. The trend regarding the number of overseas travellers arriving in South Africa since 2000 is shown in Figure 4. Although the figure shows evidence of seasonal fluctuations, the level of overseas tourism over the period has shown an upward trend since 2000.
