

Statistics South Africa Outreach and Consultation Programme
The World that Counts: The Data Revolution for the Post-2015 Sustainable Development
Agenda
February 2 – February 3 2015

1. 2 February 2015
University of Western Cape
(9h00-10h30)

TIME	EVENT	RESPONSIBILITY
	Tea and Coffee	Stats SA
	Programme Director	Mr Risenga Maluleke Deputy Director-General, Statistical Collections and Outreach Statistics South Africa
	Opening and Welcome	Mr Tyrone Pretorius The Rector and Vice-Chancellor of the University of the Western Cape
	The Data Revolution: Background and Context	Mr Pali Lehohla (SG) The Statistician-General: Statistics South Africa
	The World that Counts: The Data Revolution for the Post- 2015 Sustainable Development: The Report	Professor Enrico Giovannini Chair of the Independent Advisory Expert Group to the UN Secretary General on data revolution
	The Data Revolution The Post-2015 Sustainable Development Goals	Ms Amina Mohammed Former Cabinet Minister of the Federal Republic of Nigeria and currently special advisor to the UN Secretary General
	Q&A/Discussions	Mr Risenga Maluleke Deputy Director-General, Statistical Collections and Outreach Statistics South Africa The Programme Director chairs this session to ensure sufficient participation from the floor
	Vote of Thanks	Mr Ashwell Jenneker Deputy Director-General, Statistical Support and Informatics Statistics South Africa

2. 2 February 2015

University of Pretoria
(17h30-19h00)

The second ISibalo annual lecture series for evidence based policy making.

TIME	EVENT	RESPONSIBILITY
	Tea and Coffee	Stats SA
	Programme Director	Mr Joe de Beer Deputy Director-General, Economic Statistics. Statistics South Africa
	Opening and Welcome	Ms Cheryl de la Rey Vice-chancellor The University of Pretoria
	The Data Revolution: Background and Context	Mr Pali Lehohla (SG) The Statistician-General: Statistics South Africa
	The World that Counts: The Data Revolution for the Post- 2015 Sustainable Development: The Report	Professor Enrico Giovannini Chair of the Independent Advisory Expert Group to the UN Secretary General on data revolution
	The Data Revolution The Post-2015 Sustainable Development Goals	Ms Amina Mohammed Former Cabinet Minister of the Federal Republic of Nigeria and currently special advisor to the UN Secretary General
	Q&A/Discussions	Mr Joe de Beer Deputy Director-General, Economic Statistics. Statistics South Africa The Programme Director chairs this session to ensure sufficient participation from the floor.
	Vote of Thanks	Dr Arul Naidoo Executive Manager, Stakeholder Relations and Marketing. Statistics South Africa
	Finger Supper	Statistics South Africa

3. 3 February 2015
Media Breakfast
Monte Casino
06h30-09h00

The World that Counts: The Data Revolution for the Post-2015 Sustainable Development Agenda

Time	Activity	Responsibility
	Arrival of all Guests	TNA/Communication and SRM
	Panel members should be at the venue for make-up and microphones. A special room is available for this activity	TNA/SG/Communication and SRM
	Live broadcast of the event	TNA
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Facilitator, Peter Ndoro, welcomes and contextualises the event. He then invites the Minister in the Presidency, the honourable, Mr Jeff Radebe, to address the audience. 2. The Statistician-General, Mr Pali Lehohla, Ms Amina Mohammed and Professor Enrico Giovannini form the panel to discuss issues related to the data revolution 3. Discussions on the input led by the facilitator in the form of a Q&A and there are various crossings to Morning Live. 4. Breakfast is served.

4. 3 February 2015
Phomolong High School - Tembisa
12h00 – 13h00

Time	Event	Responsibility
	Programme Director	Ms Yandiswa Mpetsheni Acting-Deputy Director-General, National Statistics System Statistics South Africa
	Opening and Welcome	The school Principal (Must get the details)
	The Data Revolution: Background and Context	Mr Pali Lehohla Statistician-General Statistics South Africa
	The World that Counts: The Data Revolution for the Post-2015 Sustainable Development: The Report	Professor Enrico Goivannin Chair of the Independent Advisory Expert Group to the UN Secretary General on data revolution
	The Data Revolution The Post-2015 Sustainable Development Goals	Ms Amina Mohammed Former Cabinet Minister in the Federal Republic of Nigeria and currently special advisor to the UN Secretary General
	Q&A/Discussions	Yandiswa Mpetsheni Deputy Director-General, National Statistics System Statistics South Africa
	Vote of Thanks	Nthabiseng Makatha Deputy Director-General: Methodology and Standards Statistics South Africa

5. 3 February 2015

A panel discussion on the recently released book: The Emerging Data Revolution in Africa by Professor Ben Kiryegera

18h00 – 19h30

UNISA: Thabo Mbeki African Leadership Institute to host the event

Time	Activity	Responsibility
	Drinks and Registration	Statistics South Africa
	Introduction and Context	Ms Kefiloe Masiteng Deputy Director-General: Population and Social Statistics Statistics South Africa
	Opening and Welcome	Professor Vusi Gumede Thabo Mbeki African Leadership Institute
	The Emerging Data Revolution in Africa: A high-level synopsis	Professor Ben Kiryegera
	Panellist Contributions	Prof Chris Malokane Head of the School of Economics at Wits. Dr Miranda Mafafo Stats SA Ms Akhona Nkenkana President of Young African Statisticians UNISA student Mr Pali Lehohla Statistician-General Statistics South Africa
	Closing and Vote of Thanks	Mr Risenga Maluleke Deputy Director-General: Statistical Collections and Outreach Statistics South Africa
	Finger Supper	Statistics South Africa